In the event Seller objects to the calculation of the Equity Cost, any dispute shall be submitted for resolution by arbitration in accordance with Paragraph 14 (j) herein.

(II) The form of Co-Tenancy Agreement (the "CTA") shall be reasonably acceptable to Purchaser and Seller, shall be executed by Purchaser and Seller on the Closing Date, and from and after the Closing Date shall govern the relationship between Seller and Purchaser except as specifically set forth herein, and shall provide for, among other things, the following:

(i) At Closing, the Premises shall be free and clear of any liens or other exceptions to title other than any lien solely for purposes of financing the Project, necessary easements, rights of way, variations of lot lines, building and zoning restrictions, state of facts a survey would show, and other permitted exceptions to title set forth on Exhibit "C".

(ii) Each party's Co-Tenancy vehicle shall be a single purpose, bankruptcy-remote, New York or Delaware entity approved as to form by the other party. BHI shall be deemed approved for purposes hereof.

(iii) The CTA shall be in recordable form. All expenses in connection with the formation and closing of the Co-Tenancy shall be borne by the Co-Tenancy, except that each party shall bear its own legal expenses. The Co-Tenancy shall bear all operating expenses of the Project as well as real estate taxes, capital expenditures, reasonable developer's expenses incurred by Purchaser, and any negative cash flow of the Project. Nothing in this section shall affect the closing adjustments referred to in paragraph 4 below.

(iv) All items of profit, loss, net cash flow, credit and other items shall be allocated or distributed to Purchaser and Seller in accordance with their respective percentage interests in the Co-Tenancy, except that advances by Purchaser from and after the Closing to cover cash deficit requirements shall be deemed priority loans entitled to repayment out of first proceeds of sale or refinancing of the Project. Neither member shall have any right to receive cash distributions except out of operating cash flow (except upon the sale or refinancing of the Project or liquidation or reorganization of the Co-Tenancy) or to receive any distribution in kind.

(v) David Norkin shall not be prevented or limited from engaging in other business enterprises including the power generation business.

(vi) Seller shall have access on a confidential basis to all bank statements, books and records of the Co-Tenancy relating to the Project.

(vii) The Purchase Price or portion thereof converted by Seller shall be deemed Seller's sole obligation to contribute capital to the Co-Tenancy.

(viii) Subject to the provisions of subparagraph 12 (d), the Co-Tenancy shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless Seller and David Norkin from any and all environmental, hazardous, or toxic substance claims, fines, or obligations which may arise after the Closing Date (except as provided in 14 (f) below), or be asserted against the Project, under any local, state or federal law, and from any and all legal fees or other expense incurred by Seller or David Norkin in the defense of any such claims.

(ix) Purchaser shall, with due diligence and in good faith endeavor to complete the Project in accordance with its plans.

(x) Absent fraud, each party, and their assignees if any, irrevocably waive any right of partition in any action to interpret or enforce this Agreement.

(xi) Seller shall to the fullest extent possible cooperate with Purchaser in advancing the interests and plans of the Co-Tenancy, provided, that Seller shall not be obligated to incur any expense other than those expenses incurred by Seller such as legal, financial or other professional advice obtained by Seller concerning Seller's rights and obligations respecting the Co-Tenancy.

(xii) Subject to any reasonable restrictions imposed by the lender and the terms of this subparagraph, there shall be no limitation on Seller's right to assign, pledge or otherwise transfer its interest, or portion thereof in the Co-Tenancy, or to cause a sale, pledge or transfer of its equity securities (collectively a "Transfer"). Should Seller desire to effectuate a Transfer (a) to an entity directly engaged in the power generation business, Seller shall consent to the preclusion of the transferee from the right of inspection set forth in "(vi)" above, or (b) the transferee shall execute a writing agreeing to be bound the confidentiality obligations set forth in "(vi)" above and refrain from employing any confidential information to the detriment of Purchaser's or the Project's business. Notwithstanding anything contained herein, Seller may effectuate a Transfer to any person or entity with the consent of Purchaser, not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed, and the agreement of such person or entity to be subject to the terms of the CTA.

(xiii) Distributions of net cash flow shall be made at least semi-annually, subject to reasonable restrictions required by the lender.

(c) During the Option Period, Purchaser, its agents and contractors shall have the right to enter upon the Premises for the purpose of making surveys and conducting tests and other procedures in furtherance of obtaining the Permits as defined below. Purchaser shall provide Seller with a copy of any and all such reports, surveys, test results, or similar documents, without cost to Seller. Purchaser shall refrain from any act which may materially adversely effect the physical or legal aspects of the Premises under any applicable land use or environmental protection Laws. This

(vii) The Purchase Price or portion thereof converted by Seller shall be deemed Seller's sole obligation to contribute capital to the Co-Tenancy.

(viii) Subject to the provisions of subparagraph 12 (d), the Co-Tenancy shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless Seller and David Norkin from any and all environmental, hazardous, or toxic substance claims, fines, or obligations which may arise after the Closing Date (except as provided in 14 (f) below), or be asserted against the Project, under any local, state or federal law, and from any and all legal fees or other expense incurred by Seller or David Norkin in the defense of any such claims.

(ix) Purchaser shall, with due diligence and in good faith endeavor to complete the Project in accordance with its plans.

(x) Absent fraud, each party, and their assignees if any, irrevocably waive any right of partition in any action to interpret or enforce this Agreement.

(xi) Seller shall to the fullest extent possible cooperate with Purchaser in advancing the interests and plans of the Co-Tenancy, provided, that Seller shall not be obligated to incur any expense other than those expenses incurred by Seller such as legal, financial or other professional advice obtained by Seller concerning Seller's rights and obligations respecting the Co-Tenancy.

(xii) Subject to any reasonable restrictions imposed by the lender and the terms of this subparagraph, there shall be no limitation on Seller's right to assign, pledge or otherwise transfer its interest, or portion thereof in the Co-Tenancy, or to cause a sale, pledge or transfer of its equity securities (collectively a "Transfer"). Should Seller desire to effectuate a Transfer (a) to an entity directly engaged in the power generation business, Seller shall consent to the preclusion of the transferee from the right of inspection set forth in "(vi)" above, or (b) the transferee shall execute a writing agreeing to be bound the confidentiality obligations set forth in "(vi)" above and refrain from employing any confidential information to the detriment of Purchaser's or the Project's business. Notwithstanding anything contained herein, Seller may effectuate a Transfer to any person or entity with the consent of Purchaser, not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed, and the agreement of such person or entity to be subject to the terms of the CTA.

(xiii) Distributions of net cash flow shall be made at least semi-annually, subject to reasonable restrictions required by the lender.

(c) During the Option Period, Purchaser, its agents and contractors shall have the right to enter upon the Premises for the purpose of making surveys and conducting tests and other procedures in furtherance of obtaining the Permits as defined below. Purchaser shall provide Seller with a copy of any and all such reports, surveys, test results, or similar documents, without cost to Seller. Purchaser shall refrain from any act which may materially adversely effect the physical or legal aspects of the Premises under any applicable land use or environmental protection Laws. This provision shall not preclude Purchaser from conducting soil tests, borings, or, with the prior approval of Seller, which will not be unreasonably withheld, from grading the Premises to improve access for testing, surveying and similar activities, or enclosing the Premises with fencing or a wall, provided however, that any necessary permits are first obtained. The indemnification provisions of Par. 14(f) are incorporated herein by reference.

(d) Purchaser shall endeavor with due diligence in good faith to obtain all required permits, licenses, consents and approvals (the "Permits") required under all applicable Federal, state and local statutes, codes and regulations (the "Laws") in order to develop the Project in accordance with Purchaser's plans. Seller shall to the fullest extent possible, cooperate without cost to Seller and shall furnish to Purchaser on a confidential basis any studies, surveys and documentation in Seller's possession affecting the Premises. Purchaser shall advise Seller on a regular basis of the progress of the Permit endeavors, furnishing Seller with copies of all applications filed and studies obtained in connection therewith.

(e) Upon termination of this Agreement without exercise of the Option, Purchaser shall quit and surrender the Premises in a condition substantially identical to its present condition, free of liens, contamination and other matters arising out of Purchaser's activities under this Section. Purchaser shall surrender to Seller all studies, test results and surveys, concerning the Premises, prepared by Purchaser or at Purchaser's direction, this obligation to survive any termination or cancellation hereof.

(f) At Purchaser's request on 10 days' notice to Seller, Seller will execute and deliver in recordable form a memorandum in the form annexed as Exhibit "D" and Tax Law Section 255 affidavit, provided, recordation thereof shall be at Purchaser's expense.

4. At the Closing, real estate taxes and sewer rents, if any, on the basis of the fiscal year for which assessed with interest and penalties thereon, shall be adjusted as of midnight preceding the Closing Date. If the real estate tax rate for the current year has not been finally determined by the taxing authorities such taxes shall be prorated on the basis of the most recently ascertainable assessed valuation multiplied by the most recently ascertainable tax rate, and when the assessed valuation and real estate tax rate shall be finally ascertained, the adjustment shall be recomputed and the difference, if any, between the correct tax adjustment shall be paid to the party entitled thereto by the other party. The parties acknowledge that the Premises currently constitute part of a larger tax lot and are not separately assessed. Seller shall endeavor in good faith and with due diligence to cause the Premises to be separately assessed by the Finance Administrator on or prior to the Closing Date. This provision shall survive the Closing. Should Seller be unable to separately apportion the real estate taxes and/or tax liens prior to closing, Seller shall endeavor in good faith and with due diligence to do so following the closing at its expense, without prejudice to the Closing.

5. If on the Closing Date the Premises or any part thereof shall be or shall have been affected by an assessment or assessments which are or may become payable in annual installments, of which the first installment shall be a charge or lien or has been paid, and the related improvements completed then, for purposes of this Agreement, all the unpaid installments of any such assessment, including those which are to become due and payable after the Closing Date, shall be deemed to be due and payable and to be liens upon the Premises affected thereby and shall be paid and discharged by the Seller on the Closing Date.

6. The following shall be deemed obligations of Seller condition precedent to the performance of the Purchaser's obligation to close title hereunder:

(a) (I) The Premises shall be free and clear of all liens, mortgages, leases, encumbrances and tenancies, and title thereto shall be such as First American Title Insurance Company of New York, or such other co-insurance title company utilized by Purchaser, shall be willing to approve and insure without exception (other than the items set forth on Exhibit "C" (the "Permitted Exceptions")), except as expressly provided in Sections 12 (d) and 12 (e) hereof.

(II) Seller shall have performed its obligations under Section 5 and shall have tendered the deed, the Memorandum of Option in the form attached as Exhibit "D", and the remaining closing documents required hereunder.

(III) The Premises shall have been subdivided in accordance with applicable regulations as evidenced by a title endorsement, legal opinion or administrative action to such effect.

(IV) Seller's warranties and representations set forth below shall be true and correct as at Closing.

(b) In the event that the foregoing covenants and conditions shall not have been fully performed or satisfied as of the Closing Date, Purchaser shall have the right to (i) extend the Closing Date for such period, not to exceed 90 days, as Purchaser or Seller is prosecuting any applications, proceedings and appeals (beyond any right of further appeal) or clearing such conditions, until all the foregoing shall have been satisfied or (ii) of canceling this Agreement upon 15 days' notice to Seller, and upon the giving of such notice this Agreement shall be of no further force or effect and neither party thereafter shall have any further rights or liabilities hereunder, except as expressly herein provided. Should Seller default in the performance of any of its material obligations hereunder, and fail to cure same within 90 days of notice thereof (time being of the essence hereof), Purchaser's sole and exclusive remedy shall be to terminate this Agreement on notice to Seller, provided nothing herein shall prejudice Purchaser's rights at law or equity, including the right to specific performance and/or the right to receive a refund of Option Deposits previously paid in the event of Seller's wilful default, or arbitrary refusal to proceed. With respect to any matter under this Agreement requiring performance by Seller, Purchaser shall have the right to waive performance or a default by Seller and proceed to close title without any offset or reduction in the Purchase Price.

(III) The Premises shall have been subdivided in accordance with applicable regulations as evidenced by a title endorsement, legal opinion or administrative action to such effect.

(b) In the event that the foregoing covenants and conditions shall not have been fully performed or satisfied as of the Closing Date, Purchaser shall have the right to (i) extend the Closing Date for such period, not to exceed 90 days, as Purchaser or Seller is prosecuting any applications, proceedings and appeals (beyond any right of further appeal) or clearing such conditions, until all the foregoing shall have been satisfied or (ii) of canceling this Agreement upon 15 days' notice to Seller, and upon the giving of such notice this Agreement shall be of no further force or effect and neither party thereafter shall have any further rights or liabilities hereunder, except as expressly herein provided. (c) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement, should Purchaser fail to meet the material requirements of this Agreement or otherwise default or commit a breach hereof (an "Event of Default"), Seller shall have the right to terminate this Agreement upon notice to Purchaser. Upon the giving of such notice and Purchaser's failure to cure the Event of Default within 90 days thereafter (time being of the essence), the parties shall be released and relieved of any and all further obligations or liabilities hereunder, including any installment payments of the Option Deposit not yet due pursuant to paragraph 1 (b) and this Agreement shall be of no further force or effect except as provided in subparagraphs 3 (c) and (e); paragraph 9; and subparagraphs 14(f) and (j); it being acknowledged by the parties hereto that punitive damages are not available as a remedy hereunder.

(d) Purchaser may terminate this Agreement on notice to Seller. Upon the giving of such notice, the parties shall be released and relieved of any and all further obligations or liabilities hereunder, including any installment payments of the Option Deposit not yet due pursuant to paragraph 1 (b) and this Agreement shall be of no further force or effect except as provided in subparagraphs 3 (c) and (e); paragraph 9; and subparagraphs 14(f) and (j); it being acknowledged by the parties hereto that punitive damages are not available as a remedy hereunder. Nothing in this Agreement shall be the basis of any claim by Purchaser for a refund of any sums paid by Purchaser hereunder except as provided in subparagraph (b) of this Paragraph.

7. All notices, demands, payments or other communications which are required or permitted to be given or made hereunder, shall be in writing and shall be deemed given or made, as the context requires, on the third day after the date when mailed by certified or registered mail, prepaid, return receipt requested, to the party to whom intended, at the address of such party hereinbefore set forth or at such other address of which such party shall have given notice to the others in the manner provided herein, or the date or the date of personal delivery. Notices signed by the attorneys for the respective parties shall be deemed sufficient without the necessity of having the parties execute such notices.

8. (a) Promptly after the execution of this Agreement, Purchaser will make application to First American Title Insurance Company of New York, and such other co-insuring title company acceptable to the parties, for the issuance of an interim title insurance binder or report of title insurance in an amount at least equal to the Purchase Price, as hereinbefore set forth, the examination fee for which interim binder or report of title and the premium for which title insurance shall be paid for by Purchaser. Promptly after receipt of such interim binder or report, Purchaser shall give Seller notice of any objections to title shown thereby other than the Permitted Exceptions and Seller shall cause all such objections to be cured by the date specified as the Closing Date, subject to an extension of the Closing for up to 60 days. If all such objections are not cured within a reasonable period of time after the date specified for the Closing Date, Purchaser may elect to waive the objections and proceed to Closing without offset or deductions from the Purchase Price or treat the same as a default by Seller by giving notice to Seller to such effect, and, upon the giving of notice, this Agreement shall become null and void and of no further force and effect, with neither party having any further rights or liabilities hereunder except as herein expressly provided.

The parties agree that no broker, finder or salesman brought about this transaction and agree to hold each other harmless from any loss or damage that may be suffered by the other party resulting from any brokerage claim, including reasonable counsel fees in defending such action brought about by the conduct of the other party in dealing with any intermediaries. 11. The Closing Date and the Closing respectively shall be held at the offices of the Purchaser's attorney, or at the offices of Lender in New York City, within 90 days after the exercise of the Option (as the same may be extended as hereinabove provided) or on an earlier date as may be set by Purchaser on at least 20 days' notice to Seller. Purchaser shall have the right to extend the Closing Date for an additional 60 days on five business days' notice in the event that the Lender is not prepared to proceed with the Closing, subject to Purchaser's right to extend the Option Period for a further reasonable time no to exceed 30 days on notice to Seller. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Seller shall have the right to extend the Closing Date for up to 180 days in order to satisfy its obligations hereunder in the event the Option is exercised prior to the first anniversary of the date hereof. At Closing Seller shall deliver to the co-tenants or to Purchaser, as the context requires, the usual bargain and sale deed executed by the Seller in recordable form, with revenue stamps in the proper amount affixed by the Seller so as to convey to the co-tenants or Purchaser, the fee simple of the Premises in accordance with the terms of this Agreement. Seller shall also pay all transfer or recording taxes in connection therewith although same may not be paid by virtue of revenue stamps, and the parties shall execute Form TP-584 and equalization form. Acceptance of the deed by the co-tenants or Purchaser shall constitute full performance and satisfaction by Seller of all of its duties and obligations hereunder except as herein expressly provided. 12. Seller represents, warrants and covenants:

- (a) that it is the owner and holder of fee title to the Premises, free and clear of all matters except the Permitted Exceptions;
- (b) that it is a validly existing corporation organized under the laws of the State of New York, and has all requisite power and authority to execute and deliver this Agreement and all other documents required to be executed by the Seller necessary to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement without the joinder or consent of any other person or entity, and that David Norkin, as President, has the power to execute and deliver this Agreement and to bind the Seller in accordance with its terms;
- (c) that it has duly authorized the execution and delivery of this Agreement, related agreements, schedules and Exhibits and the transactions contemplated hereby. - (d) that the Premises are not a superfund site, that the Premises are not, to the best of Seller's actual knowledge, in violation of CERCLA or RCRA, and that Seller has no actual knowledge that the Premises contains or is contaminated by any hazardous or toxic waste or material. Additional remediation work shall mean any work, grading or removal of debris not required for the construction of the Project but solely required for the Premises to be in compliance with DEC Order No. R2-3324-90-11.
